The Watauga County Sheriff's Office is asking for assistance in identifying a suspect who broke into The Valley Grocery early Monday morning. The 9258 US 421 North business in Zionville was broken into around 4am, investigators saying the perpetrator entered the Valley Grocery through an exhaust fan located in the rear of the store. The man was wearing a dark colored hooded sweat shirt, a white mesh covering the face and dark colored pants. The suspect took various consumable goods and rolled coins from the store. If anyone has any information please contact the Watauga County Sheriff's Office at 828-264-3761 or High Country Crime Stoppers at 828-737-0125.
