

Intoxilyzer training complete

Written by

Wednesday, 21 November 2007 18:00

---

Avery County law enforcement officers finished intoxilyzer training earlier this week.

The classes, conducted at Banner Elk Police Department, help officers ensure that impaired drivers stay off the highways. Avery County Sheriff Kevin Frye told us earlier this year that training is the best way officers can stay on their toes. Officials say the training was a success and warn you to stay off the roads when drinking.. Otherwise, you may get a firsthand demonstration of their newfound knowledge.