

Hickory police Goated into chase

Written by

Monday, 26 November 2007 18:00

Hickory Police were goated into a chase Sunday. Two goats, first spotted along the Interstate 40 westbound exit ramp to Lenoir-Rhyne Boulevard, kept officers busy for two hours.

Both goats were captured on Eleventh Avenue Boulevard where they were tranquilized and taken to Catawba County Animal Control.