

Local man wins $175,000

Written by

Thursday, 29 November 2007 05:29

A Hickory man won $175,000- thanks to the lottery. Robert Rogers initially intended to buy a half-gallon of milk at the Shop and Save No. 1 on First Avenue. A Jingle Big Ol'Bucks instant scratch-off lottery game, however, beckoned- and Rogers left a winner. Rogers plans to pay some bills and buy a new Honda Accord with his money.