Two drug arrests were made by Blowing Rock Police, including Kirt Henry Norman, 24, of Morganton, arrested on May 21st for felony trafficking of narcotics. Norman was arrested after a traffic stop on Valley Blvd. Officers found a quantity of narcotics and marijuana as well as scales and other equipment used in the sale and distribution of controlled substances. Norman was also charged with possession of marijuana and driving with no operator's license. Norman was held in the Watauga County Jail on a $50,000 secured bond.

Aaron Paul Taylor, 24, of Wake Forest NC was arrested on May 25th for possession of narcotics. Taylor was arrested following a traffic stop on Hill Street, where officers discovered hash oil in the vehicle. Information gathered from Taylor also led to the search of a residence on Hill Street where prescription narcotics were discovered. Taylor was charged with 3 counts of misdemeanor possession of controlled substances and was held in the Watauga County Jail on a $500 secured bond.
