The front of a pickup was smashed by a runaway tire from a tractor trailer traveling through Foscoe Tuesday morning, and some slight injuries were reported in the incident. Justin Snow of Dobson was the tractor trailer driver who lost the tandem tires—but only one was found in Foscoe. The wheel and tire smashed the front of Matthew Daniel's pickup in the 7am incident, causing the airbags to deploy on the Avery man's truck. Neither Daniel nor his passenger said they required treatment, and the state patrol did not file charges in the morning incident that tied up NC 105 traffic.
