

LETTER: Tommy Klutz, Candidate for Blowing Rock Town Council

Written by Tommy Klutz

Thursday, 31 October 2013 13:20

On October 31, GoBlueRidge.net received the following editorial from Tommy Klutz, a candidate for the Blowing Rock Town Council. The letter concerns why Klutz is running for re-election.

The opinions, beliefs and viewpoints expressed by the author do not necessarily reflect the opinions, beliefs and viewpoints of GoBlueRidge.net and High Country Radio.

Dear Editor and Citizens of Blowing Rock,

Over the past several weeks, the citizens of Blowing Rock have heard about many of the issues facing our town, now and in the near future. All, of which, are very important to our special, mountain town, from the 321 (Valley Blvd.) widening, the new hospital, business and tourism, to our ongoing, work in progress, infrastructure improvements that have and will continue to benefit everyone in Blowing Rock.

Needless to say, I care deeply about all of these issues (and many more) This is exactly why I am running for re-election because I want to continue to work on and be a part of the projects that were started in the past eight years (and before) while I have been serving on the Town Council.

LETTER: Tommy Klutz, Candidate for Blowing Rock Town Council

Written by Tommy Klutz

Thursday, 31 October 2013 13:20

I was born in Blowing Rock and have lived here my entire life, never leaving. I married Ruthelen Buxton Hartley, who was also born here and grew up here. I guess one would say that we truly “grew up” together in this beautiful, “storybook” town. Together, we started our custom furniture and antique business 41 years ago. Our business, “The Restoration House”, along with a couple of others, is now one of the oldest businesses’ in Blowing Rock. Our two sons are now a part of this family-business.

I honestly believe that being born here and growing up here my entire life, gives me the important advantage of seeing and watching, first hand, what “works” in Blowing Rock and what doesn’t work here. I have also seen what has been tried and what has failed over the years, to what has been good for Blowing Rock. When you literally know every “nook and cranny” in this town and the stories and history that goes with it, I do feel that this gives me a certain special connection to Blowing Rock, that never leaves me and cannot be replaced by anything.

Having said this, I definitely think that I have a very true and unique perspective on the issues and concerns facing Blowing Rock, one that I feel is useful and very needed on the Town Council. I will continue to use “common sense” in my thinking and decisions about every issue that our special, mountain town faces. I care deeply about my hometown and would love the the opportunity to continue to work for you, and I do mean ALL the citizens of Blowing Rock and help take Blowing Rock and its famous past into the future! See you on November 5.

Sincerely,

LETTER: Tommy Klutz, Candidate for Blowing Rock Town Council

Written by Tommy Klutz

Thursday, 31 October 2013 13:20

Tommy Klutz

Current Town Councilman

Candidate for Re-Election