

Two Injured in Ashe, Watauga Wrecks

Written by Steve Frank

Thursday, 21 November 2013 16:10

A man was injured in a crash in Todd just after 2pm. The impact was said to be a rear-end collision just off NC 194 North at Pinetree Drive. Watauga Medics transported a man suffering a number of injuries to Watauga Medical Center after being assisted by Todd Fire/First responders on the scene. A Fleetwood woman was injured as she lost control of her Jeep traveling west on NC 88 6 miles east of Jefferson this morning. The 9am crash occurred near Low Gap Road and injured 34-year old Janet Marie Blevins as she ran off the highway to her right and struck the ditch, her '94 Jeep overturning. Trooper Aldridge said Blevins was treated and released at Ashe Memorial and she was cited for Failure to Maintain Lane Control.