A day of goodbye—it began last night, with the last full Boone Town Council meeting Mayor Loretta Clawson would preside over, and ends tonight, as she opens the Town Council meeting, then participates in the swearing in of new Mayor Andy Ball and the new council. Today, it was a reception for Mayor Clawson at Boone United Methodist Church, attended by several hundred well-wishers. The swearing in ceremonies begin shortly after 6:30 this evening in the Boone Town Council chambers on Blowing Rock Road.
