

Blowing Rock to Seek New Police Chief

Written by Steve Frank

Monday, 06 January 2014 10:14

Changes are in the works for the Blowing Rock Police Department, as Chief Eric Brown submitted his resignation, according to Town Manager Scott Fogleman. Fogleman said that the chief's resignation is effective January 17th, but that Cpt. Aaron Miller has already taken over as interim chief, and that the town is advertising for the position. There was no information as to whether chief Brown was taking retirement or what led to his decision to resign.