

Avery Firefighters Aid in Roan Mountain Blaze

Written by Steve Frank

Thursday, 16 January 2014 10:24

Avery firefighters crossed the border into Tennessee late yesterday afternoon to help fight a structure fire. Fire was reported in the Roan Mountain area, a home described as a log home inside a gated community. The road and the weather proved to be real obstacles to getting to and fighting the 4:30pm fire, which was still under investigation last night.

Photos: Brian Fisher, WECR-AM