

Tiffany Christian to Seek Watauga Ed Board Seat

Written by Candidate Release

Wednesday, 29 January 2014 09:37

---

Dr. Tiffany Christian has officially formed her election committee with the intention of filing for candidacy for the Watauga County Board of Education while filing opens February 10th. Dr. Christian is the mother of 4, and married to a retired Army Veteran. She and her family live in the Meat Camp area of Watauga County. She has served as a full-time faculty member at Appalachian State for 10 years and is currently the owner of Gigi's Uniforms and More in the Boone Mall. She has graduate degrees in Education, Social Work and Theology. Christian's community involvement includes Hardin Park Parent Teacher Organization, Boone Sunrise Rotary, Girl Scouts and the board of directors for Hospitality House.