

Fatal Fire Reported in Wilkes County

Written by Steve Frank

Sunday, 16 February 2014 06:42

Fire has apparently claimed one life in a blaze in Wilkes County in a Saturday. Details are yet to be released by Wilkes authorities, but reports on CFP alerts indicates that a mobile home in Wilkes County was destroyed in an afternoon fire Saturday, and that one person at the home was killed. The report was filed late in the afternoon, with Wilkes officials still on the scene of the Mountainview fire call, a blaze battled by Mountainview and several other Wilkes departments.