

Theater Operator Honored by Boone Council

Written by Steve Frank
Friday, 21 March 2014 07:18

While the rebirth of the Appalachian Theater dominated the end of the Boone Town Council meeting Thursday night, the Town Council started their night by adopted a resolution of gratitude for the long-time head of the theater when it operated in downtown Boone, C.J. Hayes. With family present, Mayor Andy Ball read the resolution into the minutes.