

Suspects Sought in Hickory Bank Robbery

Written by Steve Frank
Thursday, 17 April 2014 05:59

The Hickory Police Department released surveillance stills from a bank robbery that occurred at about 10:40am yesterday at the Community One Bank at 2220 12th Avenue NE. Two subjects, pictured in the stills, are wanted in connection to this incident. The subjects are described as black males, one about 6' 4" wearing dark clothing, sunglasses, and a winter hat. The other suspect is about 5'8"- 5'10" wearing a gray hoodie, black pants, sunglasses, and toboggan. There is no vehicle description from the robbery, which remains under investigation.