

Ashe Arrests Come in Crumpler B&E

Written by Steve Frank

Wednesday, 06 August 2014 08:07

Ashe Detectives have arrested three Crumpler residents in a break-in from the Crumpler area from July. Corry Dean Rash, 22, Moriah Nicole Bowers, 20, and David W Lee, 28 were arrested on Breaking and Entering charges, along with Larceny after Breaking and Entering. All three are currently in the Ashe County Jail awaiting trial. They were arrested by officers on July 24th in an investigation in which games, video equipment and silver coins were stolen from a residence in Crumpler. The Ashe Sheriff's Office release says approximately half of the property has been recovered by Detectives Dennis Anders and David Upchurch who were the arresting officers.