Landowners interested in learning more about land management in Western North Carolina are invited to participate in the second annual High Country Woodland Owner Short Course.

The Course is offered through Biltmore Forest School and will consist of a team of land management experts from federal and state agencies, universities, and the private sector. 48 hours over 6 sessions will allow you the opportunity to engage with natural resource and land management specialists. The cost is $25 per person per session and includes lunch, snacks and workshop related equipment or other materials. To register, call Amy Garascia at 828-877-3350.
