'Thomas' the Tank Engine visits the high country Friday through June 10 as part of the 45-city Day Out With Thomas 2007: All Aboard Tour.

Look for him at Tweetsie Railroad where rides on a train pulled by a 25-ton replica of Thomas will be offered, as well as live music and other activities. Tickets are $29 for adults and $21 for children aged 3 to 12. Two and under get in for free. To ride the Tweetsie train pulled by Thomas, reservations are suggested.
