This weekend is your last chance to catch the world premiere of Moses Cone: The Denim King at Blowing Rock Stage Company.

While tickets are still available at 828-295-9627, park rangers invite you to experience the whole story.

Through October 21st, rangers will lead tours of the second floor of the former home of Moses and Bertha Cone. It's a worthwhile experience according to the Manor's John Mars.

Tours are by reservation only and last about thirty minutes. Call Moses Cone Manor House at (828)295-3782 for more information.
