

Traffic-Related Deaths Decrease Statewide

Written by Adam Hicks
Tuesday, 07 April 2009 08:17

---

Traffic-related fatalities in North Carolina have decreased by more than 17 percent from this time last year.

According to more statistics released by the Department of Motor Vehicles, alcohol-related traffic fatalities have decreased nearly 20 percent and motorcycle fatalities are down 26 percent.