According to Charles Hardin, Art in the Park Saturday in Blowing Rock on the American Legion Grounds is going to be a hit.

Vendors come from all over the southeast, he says, featuring everything from canvas art to pottery.

Parking should be no problem. A free shuttle will transport guests from Food Lion and Tanger Shops' parking lot via trolley.

The fun doesn't have to end Saturday. The Blue Notes, a Dixie land jazz band, will be playing a free concert in downtown Blowing Rock at four on Sunday.

Hardin says it's a must for jazz lovers.
