

Saturday's Dodgeball Tournament at WHS to Benefit Leukemia and Lymphoma Society

Written by Adam Hicks
Friday, 15 May 2009 12:31

A dodgeball tournament will be held at Watauga High School Saturday morning, with the proceeds going to benefit the leukemia and lymphoma society.

According to Jennifer Pillow, who is organizing the event, teams will be made of six players and the tournament is open to players of all ages, with parental consent for anyone under 18.

Teams should wear costumes or matching uniforms.

Pillow said registration costs $10 per player or $60 per team and there is a cash prize for the winning team.

Registration begins at 9:30 Saturday morning at Watauga High and the first game is scheduled to begin at 10:45.

Saturday's Dodgeball Tournament at WHS to Benefit Leukemia and Lymphoma Society

Written by Adam Hicks
Friday, 15 May 2009 12:31

Interested residents can contact Pillow at tndodgeball@gmail.com .