Watauga County Parks and Recreation is organizing three race events as part of the “Over the Creek and Through the Woods IX” event next weekend on Boone’s Greenway Trail.

According to Karen Poteat of the recreation department, said Dianne Davant & Associates and Appalachian Brian Estates are sponsoring the event. The races will be held on Saturday morning, May 30.

A 10k race begins at 8:30, a kids fun run begins at 9:30, and a 5k race will start at 10:00.

The top three finishers of various age divisions will be awarded as well as the top three overall finishers.

Registration is $15 for the races and $10 for the fun run, but the event is free if you are already registered to participate in the High Country Senior Games. Registration begins at 7:30 and will be held at the Wynne Picnic Shelter by the Watauga County Parks and Recreation office.
