Set up begins at noon today for the 2007 Trade Days Festival, which will be held June 22 to 24.

9 a.m. today, Ric Byrd leads the Native American Blessing of the Festival. The Trade Days Festival is a celebration of northeast Tennessee culture, featuring arts, crafts and exhibits that represent the best of Appalachian life, both past and present. While the festival began in 1989, it's still going strong. Ticket prices for one day are $10 for adults and $5 for children. For the entire weekend, prices are $20 for adults and $12 for children.
