High School Seniors and College Students have just a few more days to submit their free application for Federal Student Aide, which determines their eligibility for college financial aid. The deadline is March 15th. Last year more than $152 billion dollars was distributed in federal college financial aid. That can make a difference when the average cost of a four year public university has increased to $5,800 dollars a year, and for a four year private university has increased to over $22,000 dollars a year.
