

Stretch of Highway 105 to be Resurfaced

Written by Adam Hicks
Friday, 17 July 2009 10:56

Crews will be working to mill and resurface a stretch of Highway 105 from Shulls Mill Road to Aldridge Road near Foscoe.

Maymead, Inc. will be conducting the operation.

A spokesperson for Maymead, Inc. said crews will be working at night, but traffic delays are expected and alternate routes are recommended.

The construction will begin the week of July 26 and will continue until August 28.