Rangers at the Blue Ridge Parkway have several free events scheduled for this week.

Friday evening at 7:30, rangers will teach residents about the incredible 2,000-mile migration of the monarch butterflies. This program will last about 40 minutes and will be held at the Julian Price Park Amphitheater.

Bluegrass band, Never Too Late, will perform for free on Saturday evening at 7:00 at the Julian Price Park Amphitheater. This concert will last about 45-minutes.

Also, don't forget that rangers give tours of the Cone Manor every Saturday and Sunday. The seasonal tours will stop for the year the weekend of October 18. Interested residents must call (828) 295-3782 to make reservations.

All of these events are free and open to the public.
