The Watauga Humane Society will hold their Dog Jog fundraiser this weekend at the Watauga County Parks and Recreation Complex.

The event will feature a contest for the best dog trick and a pet/owner look-alike contest.

According to organizers, registration costs $20 for residents and $15 for students.

This one-mile dog jog will begin Saturday at 11:00 a.m. If you'd like to get involved with the event, but don't have a dog, you can arrive early and jog with a dog from the Watauga Humane Society's shelter.

Highway 106.1's afternoon drive host, Buzz Berry, will serve as the master of ceremonies for Saturday's fundraiser. Everyone who signs up will receive a Dog Jog 2009 long-sleeve t-shirt.
