

Ashe County Men Arrested on Vehicular Breaking and Entering Charges

Written by Adam Hicks

Tuesday, 20 October 2009 04:45

Boone Police Officers arrested three men from Ashe County on Sunday on breaking and entering charges after the men are believed to have broken into several vehicles.

According to April Gunter of the Boone Police Department, 27-year-old Derrick Chad Anderson, 28-year-old Anthony Shane Anderson, and 24-year-old Austin James Morrow were charged with three counts of breaking and entering a motor vehicle, three counts of misdemeanor larceny from a motor vehicle, and three counts of damage to property.

The three are believed to have broken into the vehicles in the Shadowline Shopping Center Area.

Derrick Chad Anderson and Austin James Morrow also face one count of larceny from the Food Lion on Highway 421, just east of Boone.

The men are each being held under a $13,000 bond and will appear in court on November 17.