The Mast General Store is hosting its 5th Annual Share the Warmth coat, sweater, and blanket collection campaign.

Sheri Moretz of Mast General said the drive is intended to help residents stay warm this winter through this tough economic time.

Mast General Store and Columbia Sportswear are putting on the event and residents are asked to bring clean coats, jackets, blankets, and sweaters so others can be warm this winter. These items can be dropped off at Mast General Store locations and they will be donated to the Salvation Army.

Residents are invited to bring coats, jackets, blankets, and sweaters to Mast General locations by November 30.
