

Board of Elections sworn in- just in time for filing deadline

Written by Lauren Ohnesorge
Tuesday, 17 July 2007 20:36

Yesterday was an important day for Watauga County Board of Elections: Glenn Hodges, clerk of court, swore in Stella Anderson, Russell Henson and Stacy Eggers for their second two-year term on the Board. Anderson was reelected chair, Henson secretary. The Watauga County elections office faces a busy week. With the Friday-noon deadline to file for municipal candidacy approaching, the number of candidates is increasing. For an updated list of candidates from Watauga, Ashe, Avery, Wilkes and Caldwell counties, visit our website at goblueridge.net.