

Tree hits man in Ronda

Written by Lauren Ohnesorge
Wednesday, 18 July 2007 12:03

A tree landed on a construction worker near Ronda Town Hall this afternoon.

Work was being done on the sewers that required the tree to be cut down. The man was airlifted to Winston Salem. Unconfirmed reports say the man may have been working for Turner Construction Company out of Hickory. Both his identity and condition remain unknown.