

Wine Festival at the River House

Written by Lauren Ohnesorge
Thursday, 19 July 2007 20:15

Ready your palettes- Saturday features a Wine Festival at the River House Country Inn and Restaurant in Grassy Creek from 1 to 5 p.m.

The Fifth Annual Wine Festival is on the New River- a beautiful locale according to event organizer Sherman Lyle.

The festival is unique in that it only features North Carolina wines. Biltmore Estate Winery, Chatham Hill Winery, and RagApple Lassie Vineyard are among those featured at the event.

It's not all wine and cheese, however. Arts and crafts, as well as musicians will also be part of the entertainment. For more information, contact the River House at (336) 982-2109.