

Carolina West Wireless Expansion

Written by Lauren Ohnesorge
Sunday, 22 July 2007 20:07

Leading wireless and data service provider Carolina West Wireless announced its expansion into four additional counties in western North Carolina. Carolina West has been serving northwestern North Carolina for over sixteen years.

The purchase of additional license allows the company to offer service to residents in Alexander, Burke, Caldwell and Catawba counties. Headquartered in Wikesboro, Carolina West has established retail locations in Hickory, Morganton and Lenoir.