

Some rowdy Mountaineers: Tell us what you think

Written by

Monday, 17 December 2007 09:55

As the Mountaineer football players rounded out the last three minutes of play in Friday's FCS title contest, some Mountaineer fans got rowdy and tried to charge the field early.

Security had difficulty holding back the excitement. After returning a kickoff 75-yards for a touchdown, he hurled the ball towards the impeding crowd- hitting an officer in uniform.

When the gun sounded, marking the end of the game and the three-peat victory for Appalachian- the fans could not be held back any longer. Thousands of fans charged the field to celebrate the win.

App-fan behavior has been criticized by commentators since Friday's contest. Tell us what you think on GOBLUERIDGE.NET.