Robert Franklin Gilley, 78, of Blowing Rock, passed away at home on July 5, 2013, after a brief battle with cancer.

Known as a determined southern gentleman at 6' 4", he achieved national recognition as a top producer in the insurance industry as a Certified Life Underwriter.

He is survived by wife, Sarah J. Gilley, and son Sean Gilley of Winston-Salem, sister Sheila and her husband Gerry Brown of Hickory, sister Donna Maye of Hickory, sister Vicki and her husband Eddie Williams of Hickory, brother Graham and his wife Ann Gilley of Lenoir, and grandson Joseph Schraeder of Charlotte, along with step son Noah and his wife Kellie Burgess with granddaughters Kayla and Sophie of Greensboro, in addition to numerous nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his first wife Betty Jo Perkins Gilley, daughter Erin Schrader of Charlotte, his mother Alice Nichols Gilley and father Robert Gilley of Boone.

He earned a B.S. and Masters in Music at Appalachian State University. Bob entered the life insurance business in 1962 and was a member of the Million Dollar Round Table and a Chartered Life Underwriter since 1966. He was among top producers nationally. He was a former faculty member of the Purdue University Life Insurance Marketing Institute. He was also former president of Habitat for Humanity in Charlotte.

Philanthropic services included serving on the Advisory Board of the Hayes School of Music of Appalachian State University and lead donor of the Robert F. Gilley Recording Studio. He offered a generous land grant for founding of the ASU Gilley Field Station located near the New River. He also served as advisor on the National Committee for the New River.

Recently, he donated a Steinway Concert Grand Piano to Myers Park Baptist Church in Charlotte where he was a deacon and member of the congregation for more than 20 years.

Bob sang professionally beginning as a cast member of Horn in the West outdoor drama in Boone during college days. He also hosted a local radio program in Boone for WATA. Later in life, he sang as an oratorio soloist with the Charlotte Symphony and was a featured vocalist at Myers Park Baptist Church.

During the past year, he began duplicate bridge and earned his Junior Master status. He will be greatly missed by friends and family.
