Armolee Culler Greene, age 82, of Dotson Lane, Mountain City, Tennessee, and a native and former resident of Watauga County, passed away Saturday morning, August 3rd, 2013, at the Mountain City Care Center.

Born May 16, 1931, she was a daughter of James Richard and Mary Miller Culler. Mrs. Greene was a housekeeping supervisor for a number of motels. Armolee was a Christian woman who loved the Lord as well as her family. She and her husband ministered to various nursing homes and hospital groups, singing gospel music.

Mrs. Greene is survived by her husband of 42 years, Clarence 'Frog' Greene; daughter, Marlene Crosby and husband, Jerry, of Banner Elk; son, Dana Miller and wife, Cathy, of Linville; two grandchildren, Sean Miller and wife, Lori, of Conley Springs, and Keri Miller McGhee and husband, Chris, of Charlotte; great-granddaughter, Melanie Miller of Conley Springs; four sisters, Nina Cooper and husband, Arnold, of Aberdeen, Jimma Lou Hodges and Lana King, both of Mountain City, TN; and Jean Hester and husband, Floyd, of Wendell; brother, Lee Culler of Wendell; and a sister-in-law, Lois Turner of Boone. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by a brother, Robbie Turner; two nephews, Tony Winebarger and Jamie Tucker; and great niece, Hannah Mae Greer.

A celebration of the life service for Armolee Culler Greene will be conducted Saturday afternoon, August 10, 2013, at 1 o'clock at the Church of Deliverance, officiated by Dana Miller and Pastor Bruce Miller. The family will receive friends at the church following services.

Memorial donations may be made to the Greene family, in care of Marlene Crosby, 171 Crystal Dew, Banner Elk, NC 28604.
