

Cora Wilcox Winebarger

Written by Karen Ventrone
Monday, 10 March 2014 16:06

Cora Wilcox Winebarger, age 86, of 1957 Meat Camp Road, Boone, passed away Friday evening, March 7, 2014, at Glenbridge Health and Rehabilitation Center.

Mrs. Winebarger was a former employee of IRC of Boone and a member of Faith Baptist Church.

Mrs. Winebarger is survived by her husband, James Burl Winebarger of Boone, a daughter, Sarah Doty and husband Joe of Broken Arrow, OK, a son, Gerald Huff and wife Jeannette of Boone, three granddaughters, Vicki Wilcox of St. Simons Island, GA, Tammy Wilson and husband Gary, and Becky Treadway all of Todd, four grandsons, Eric Huff and wife Jodie of Elk Park, Todd Huff and wife Amanda of Deep Gap, Jerry Wilcox and wife Pam of Todd, and Doelan Wilcox and wife Terri of St. Louis, MO, twelve great-granchildren, one great-great-granchild, three sisters, Minnie Davis of Boone, Geneva Ashley of Myrtle Beach, SC, and Juanita Holman of Lenoir, and one brother, O'dell Wilcox of Gastonia, NC. Several nieces and nephews also survive.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Claude Wilcox and Maggie Phillips Wilcox, and a son, Thomas Wilcox.

Graveside services for Cora Wilcox Winebarger will be conducted Monday afternoon, March 10, 2014 at 2:00 o'clock, at Mount Lawn Memorial Park and Garden Mausoleum. Officiating will be Dr. Sonny Younce and Revered Delmar James. Entombment will follow in the Mount Lawn Mausoleum.

Flowers are appreciated or memorials contributions may be made to the Proffitt's Grove Baptist Church Cemetery Fund, c/o Jennette Huff, 279 Henry Winebarger Road, Boone, NC 28607.

Online condolences may be sent to the Winebarger family at www.hamptonfuneralinc.com.

Hampton Funeral and Cremation Service is in charge of the arrangements.