

Mayland #10 of 50 'Best Schools'

Written by Steve Frank
Thursday, 13 June 2013 12:51

Mayland Community College has been ranked the 10th best Community College in the country by website The Best Schools. The site outlined the locations in Spruce Pine, the Avery Learning Center in Newland, and the Yancey Learning Center in Burnsville, and noted Mayland's partnerships with area colleges and universities providing transfer options to students. The school offers 35 programs. The article notes that Mayland was ranked the #4 community college in the 2010 Washington Monthly ranking of America's best community colleges, and noted the only other ranked school in the area was Coastal Carolina Community College in Jacksonville NC.