CINDY

My name is Jessa and I live in Valle Crucis. Saturday afternoon my standard red dachshund decided to try and follow my son back to college. We live off of 194 on Tom Shook Road about 1/2 mile above Holy Cross Episcopal Church/conference center. His name is Duke and he does not have a collar on. He got sprayed by a skunk last week and threw his collar out. Ironically, his new collar came in from LL Bean the same day he ran away. He is a sweet boy and we love him deeply. The valley was full of tourists that weekend. Please, please contact us if you have seen our Duke. He is a large standard and is red in color. He is also neutered. My number is 828-963-4816. Thank you very, very much for this service.
