

Snow, Harper named West Assistants

Written by Mike Kelly

Thursday, 05 August 2010 20:31

Adrian Snow, who led the Watauga High football team to a pair of Final Four appearances, and Tom Harper of Alexander Central have been named assistant coaches for the North Carolina East-West Senior All-Star game next July in Greensboro.

Snow, now in his third year as head coach at West Forsyth, was 29-22 during his four-year stay with the Pioneers. He was 23-7 in his last two seasons. He is 19-6 with a pair of playoff appearances at West Forsyth.

Harper, now in his fourth season as head coach at Alexander Central, led the Cougars to an 11-2 record and a second-place finish in the Northwestern 3A/4A Conference last fall. His three teams at Alexander Central have gone 19-17, and his overall coaching record is 27-41 in six seasons. He previously was head coach at East Burke.

Paul Hoggard, former head coach at West Caldwell and is currently at Richmond County, has been named head coach of the East team.

Women's soccer coach Mike Sloan of Wilkes Central has been named the West head coach for the East-West Women's Senior All-Star game at UNC-Greensboro. The all-star football, basketball and soccer games will be played July 18-20, 2011 in Greensboro.