The Watauga High volleyball team continued its early-season domination on Saturday.

The Pioneers (10-1) knocked off Starmount and East Burke in a tri-match at Lentz-Eggers Gym. WHS defeated Starmount in four games: 25-12, 23-25, 25-19 and 25-18. WHS knocked off East Burke in a three-game sweep: 25-22, 25-11, 25-13.

Bailey Hagaman led the way with 70 assists. She had 41 in the win against Starmount; she had 29 in the East Burke match. Channing Hagaman and Hannah Stewart each had 20 kills; Colby Combs had 16. Brooke Rhoades had 12 kills on the day.

"What I really like most about this team is that we have everyone making a contribution," said WHS coach Kris Hagaman. "It's not just one person getting involved, but a lot of people making things happen on the floor. In turn, that creates a lot of problems for the defense."

Caroline Yates had eight digs and seven service aces; Skylar Hicks had 19 digs, 12 of those in the East Burke match. The Pioneers (1-0 in the Northwestern 3A/4A Conference) host Hibriten Tuesday night.
