

'Silver Alert' Issued for Burke Woman; May Be in High Country

Written by NC Center for Missing Persons
Saturday, 18 December 2010 11:25

---

The N.C. Center for Missing Persons has issued a Silver Alert for a missing endangered woman, Betty Martha Triplett. Citizens are asked to be on the lookout for Betty Martha Triplett, who is believed to be suffering from dementia or some other cognitive impairment.

Anyone with information about Betty Martha Triplett should call Det. M. Ollis at the Burke County Sheriff's Office at 828-443-1479.

Gender: Female                      DOB: 11/24/1942

Hair Color: Brown                      Hair Length: Medium

Other Distinguishing Physical Characteristics:
scar on neck that is 1/4 inch long and knot on elbow from pin being put in

Clothing Description:
Purple Shirt, Purple Jogging Pants, 1 white tennis shoe and 1 black dress boot

Reporting Law Enforcement: Burke County Sheriff's Office

Contact Information: Det. M. Ollis                      at                      828-443-1479

Location of Incident: 5630 Bee Tree Ave., Morganton, NC

Location Last Seen: Dysartsville Rd., Morganton, NC 28655

Direction of Travel:

Possible Destination:
Boone, NC