

UPDATE: Chancellor Peacock Hospitalized

Written by Steve Frank

Saturday, 05 February 2011 18:43

ASU Chancellor Ken Peacock was hospitalized Saturday after feeling ill early in the day. Executive Vice chancellor Lorin Baumhover has issued an update:

Our Chancellor suffered a minor cardiac event. However, doctors expect a full recovery. He is resting comfortably and will remain at Carolinas Medical Center. I expect he will be released in the next few days. The family greatly appreciates your thoughts and prayers and respectfully requests no visitors or calls. We will continue sharing any substantive information as it is known.