The Watauga High wrestling team produced a fifth-place finish at the Northwestern 3A/4A Conference championships on Saturday afternoon at Alexander Central High School in Taylorsville.

But the Pioneers also produced five place finishers, including one champion, two runner-ups and four possible regional qualifiers. Demetree Kostis won the title at 125 pounds as he defeated Jonathan Zuniga of Alexander Central 14-10 in the finals. Gus Coffey finished second at 103 as he lost to Blake Rogers of St. Stephens by pinfall in 2:47. Robbie Sherrill finished second at 189. He lost to Charles Volz of South Caldwell 3-1 in the championship match. Jacob Gilliam finished third at 160 by defeating Cody Watson of South Caldwell 5-0, and Travis Gryder finished fourth at 215 as he lost to Derek Deal of Alexander Central in 38 seconds in their third-place match.

The top 16 records in the region per weight class will qualify for regional competition, according to WHS coach James Eichmiller. A regional-qualifying meeting will be held in Charlotte on February 15.

Team-wise, the Pioneers were fifth with 79 points. Fred T. Foard won the tournament with 206.5 points; St. Stephens was second with 158.5. South Caldwell was third, Alexander Central was fourth, Hibriten was sixth and Hickory finished last and did not score a point.

Scott Hardiman of Hibriten, who won the title at 135 pounds, was named the tournament's Most Outstanding Wrestler. Up next, the Class 4A Western Regional at the Bojangles Arena in Charlotte, February 18-19. The state finals will be held at the Greensboro Coliseum, February 24-26.
