

Cheapest Gas? Let Us Know

Written by Steve Frank
Friday, 25 February 2011 06:21

It's not safe to go to sleep, because when you wake, you may find the nightmare of another 15-cent increase in the price of gas.

Prices made a major jump in the High Country yesterday, the price across the street from the station at $3.15 yesterday, $3.29 this morning. Libya, The third North African country to have unrest over its leadership, continues the uncertainty over gas supplies, spiking prices around the world. How high will prices go? Don't go to sleep.

So let's help each other out. Call your favorite High Country Radio station and report the CHEAPEST gas you see. We'll report it on the radio and post it here on GoBlueRidge.net. You can call or text our news line, 828-414-8030. See cheap gas? Call us! 828-414-8030.

RESPONSES:

- email: Gas at the in&out citgo on highway 105 just across from the wilco was selling at 3.17 a gallon this am. These are new local owners that are really trying and could use everybodys support.

- Caller: In & Out Citgo on 105...$3.19--price good till Tuesday
- $3.45 gas exxon at tyncastle