The Watauga High baseball team will play a little closer to home during the Easter holidays this season.

Unlike past years when the Pioneers traveled to eastern North Carolina to play in an Easter tournament, this season they will travel to Forest City, NC for the East Rutherford Easter Tournament. Competition begins Monday, April 25. The Pioneers will play Chase in the opening round at 5 pm. Tuesday, April 26 will be an off day, and the Pioneers will then wrap up the tournament with semifinal play on Wednesday, April 27 and the finals on Thursday, April 28. Northwestern 3A/4A Conference opponents, Alexander Central and South Caldwell will join WHS in Forest City. Hickory Ridge, Chase, R.S. Central, East Rutherford and Team Carolina round out the eight-team field. Our coverage on Oldies 100.7 FM begins Monday, April 25 at 4:30 pm.
