50 minutes later, a trash truck trashed the front end of a small Toyota sedan. Watauga Medics transported Shelsea Wilson, 23, of Banner Elk to Watauga Medical while the state patrol investigated, but injuries were said to be minor. Trooper Jennings said the GDS truck turned left out of Landfill Road and struck the sedan traveling U.S.421. Ricky Oaks, 28, of Banner Elk, was the driver, and trooper Jennings said Oaks failed to yield right-of-way and would be cited.
