

Relay for Life Brings Survivors, Families to WHS

Written by Steve Frank
Saturday, 18 June 2011 15:21

The parking lot at Watauga High looked like the football team was playing at home. It WAS a home team of a sort--cancer survivors and their teams of supporters, taking turns on the track at the school. It was the first year for the annual event at the new school, but one of a long line of successful fund-raisers for the local effort.

