Appalachian State University students can purchase tickets to Appalachian football's season opener at Virginia Tech on Monday, Aug. 22 at the Kidd Brewer Stadium ticket plaza (located on the northeast side of the stadium, closest to the intersection of Stadium Drive and Jack Branch Drive).

Tickets will be sold to ASU students on a first-come, first-served basis beginning at 9 a.m. Tickets cost $48 apiece and Appalachian students can purchase up to two (2) tickets with a valid ASU student ID. Acceptable methods of payment include cash, Visa, MasterCard and American Express. ASU express accounts or personal checks will NOT be accepted.

Students may begin lining up for tickets at 6 a.m., however camping out will NOT be permitted. ASU police will monitor the area throughout the overnight hours and ask students that are camping out to vacate the premises.

Appalachian football opens the 2011 season at defending Atlantic Coast Champion Virginia Tech on Sept. 3 at 12:30 p.m.
